Since being elected to be part of the General Assembly, what have you done to represent the student voice in the chamber and in other relevant circumstances?

As the elected representative for the College of Arts and Sciences at Ohio State University, I have consistently advocated for the student voice within the General Assembly. In my role, I have actively participated in weekly meetings, voicing the concerns and opinions of the students I represent. I have strived to ensure that student perspectives are considered in decision-making processes, addressing issues related to academic policies, campus resources, and student well-being. Additionally, I have engaged in open communication with fellow students through tabling events, and I have gathered feedback and ideas to bring to the assembly, aiming to foster a collaborative and inclusive environment that promotes the best interests of our student community.
