February 10, 2014

USG Announces Good Samaritan Policy Town Hall

Columbus – The Ohio State University’s Undergraduate Student Government is pleased to announce they will host a Good Samaritan Policy Town Hall in the Interfaith Prayer Room on the third floor of the Ohio Union on February 11 at 6pm. Among the topics of discussion will be Ohio House Bill 392, which plans to introduce an alcohol medical amnesty Good Samaritan policy across the State of Ohio. One of the bill’s cosponsors, State Representative Michael Stinziano will be in attendance. Others in attendance will be Javaune Adams-Gaston Ph.D., Vice President for Student Life, as well as Chief Paul Denton, Ohio State Police Department.

For additional information, please contact:

Matt Deptola, Senior Policy Advisor

depola.2@osu.edu

330-998-3798

- USG Communications Department