A Resolution to Call on the University to Update Their What-to-Bring Page to Properly Inform the Student Body

Shyla Mudundi (for herself, Katie Strayer and Mehak Sankhla) introduced the following resolution to the Steering Committee where it passed, and to the floor where it passed/failed.

Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University; and

Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government recognizes that other universities such as Indiana University, provides direct links of what-to-bring lists to increase campus wide accessibility<sup>1</sup>; and

Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government already has the educational resources to supply students with maximum safety precautions but does not provide upfront links; and

Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government sees that there are resources that are not readily available to students using the “what-to-bring” pdf; and

Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government is pushing the university to acknowledge responsibility to provide accessibility to all resources; and

Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government needs to acknowledge the lack of detail on the health and safety sector located in the what-to-bring pdf, which is causing students to come unprepared; and

Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government acknowledges that it is important to recognize that we have open access to available resources, to bridge the gap between unknown and known resources that the university provides on public platforms; and

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved that the Undergraduate Student Government urges the administration of The Ohio State University to update and improve the current “what-to-bring-columbus-campus.pdf;” and

Therefore, Let It Be Resolved that the Undergraduate Student Government urges the administration of The Ohio State University that the “CFAES Safety and Compliance” website
