A Resolution to Advocate for Increased Accessibility to the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) Kimmy Sullivan (for herself, Connor Dorony, Kyle Dorony, Shamina Merchant, Samer Abusway, and Kurt Shaffer) introduced the following resolution to the Steering Committee, where it passed. * * * Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and	1	49-R-20
Kimmy Sullivan (for herself, Connor Dorony, Kyle Dorony, Shamina Merchant, Samer Abusway, and Kurt Shaffer) introduced the following resolution to the Steering Committee, where it passed. * * * Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and	2
Kimmy Sullivan (for herself, Connor Dorony, Kyle Dorony, Shamina Merchant, Samer Abusway, and Kurt Shaffer) introduced the following resolution to the Steering Committee, where it passed. * * * Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Kimmy Sullivan (for herself, Connor Dorony, Kyle Dorony, Shamina Merchant, Samer Abusway, and Kurt Shaffer) introduced the following resolution to the Steering Committee, where it passed. * * * * Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		Experience Program (STEP) Abusway, and Kurt Shaffer) introduced the following resolution to the Steering Committee, where it passed. * * * * Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and where it passed. * * * Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, ¹ and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, ² and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		,
Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		where it passed.
Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
Whereas the Undergraduate Student Government represents all undergraduate students at The Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		* * *
Ohio State University, and Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
Whereas the Second-Year Transformational Experience Program (STEP) is a program designed to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		Ohio State University, and to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, ² and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, ² and Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		to enhance the experience of participating second-year students, and
Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		****
Whereas students who do not receive sufficient information about STEP are unlikely to develop an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		Whereas a significant number of freshmen reported being unaware of STEP, and an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		NYD
Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		•
Whereas accessibility to STEP may therefore be contingent upon the amount of exposure and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		an interest in and decide to participate in the program, and information a student has about the program, which may vary drastically between students depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		W/L il ilitata CTED the section and secti depending on a number of factors, and Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
 Whereas Ohio State students in their second year may have spent their first year at a different university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP,³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and 		depending on a number of factors, and university, an Ohio State regional campus, or Ohio State Agricultural Technical Institute (ATI), and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		Whomas Ohio State students in their second wear may have sment their first wear at a different and Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP,³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and
Whereas transfer students and campus change students are eligible to participate in STEP, ³ and Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		and
Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		Whoreas transfer students and campus change students are aligible to participate in STED 3 and
Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		whereas transfer students and earnpus change students are engible to participate in STET, and
ATI, students may not receive sufficient information about STEP to make the decision to participate, and		Whereas during the process of transferring from another university or a regional campus and
35 participate, and
1 1 /
	36	participate, and
	37	Whereas second-year students on regional campuses and and Ohio State ATI who choose not to 38
1 ,	39

¹ https://step.osu.edu/program-overview/
2 http://step.osu.edu/program-overview/faqs/
3 https://step.osu.edu/program-overview/faqs/

40	Therefore Let it Be Resolved that the Undergraduate Student Government suggests improving
41	the marketing of information about STEP to freshmen on all Ohio State campuses, such as
42	requiring RAs to mention the program to their students, and 43
44	Let it Further Be Resolved that the Undergraduate Student Government encourages an increase
45	in the number of STEP information sessions held at all Ohio State campuses and Ohio State ATI,
46	as well as increased marketing of these sessions, and
47		,
48	Let it Further Be Resolved that the Undergraduate Student Government recommends providing
49	a link to more information about STEP, such as a link to a description or an infographic,
50	alongside the option to opt in to the program, on all second-year transfer, regional transfer, and
51	Columbus campus housing applications, and
52	2,
53	Let it Further Be Resolved that the Undergraduate Student Government recommends that The
54	Ohio State University administration looks into expanding STEP to all regional campuses.
55	ome suite om referry automissiation rooms into expanding 5 121 to an regional earnpaises.
56
57
58
59	Floor Vote: Passed.
60
61
62
63	0. a h	1000
64	Gerard C. Basalla	Panielle M. BiScala
65	service C. 1011 C.	10116 1118000
66	Gerard Basalla	Danielle Di Scala
67	President	Vice President
68
69
70
71
72
73	Date Adopted: 10/26/16	Date Terminated:
74
75
15			