Going to the Meet and Greet allowed me to meet quite a few of my constituents even though the weather was not the best, most of the people I asked said they lived off campus. I would ask them all the same question, "What do you think could be better or changed on campus?" mention in meetings and other large groups that I am the off campus senator and if people had an question or concerns they could come up to me and I will answer them. I found this to be pretty effective on the oval actually once. I might try and do it again before the weather get bad.
