- i. Quadri: Pretty straight forward. We are just into. Bias reporting services. Not forcing, we are encouraging it. It should be vague. I would rather let the departments come up with that later on
 - ii. Sockwel: Students know that there is something that can be done
 - iii. Malpass: Being someone who was targeted at one time. The s
 - iv. Murphy: The social work school already does this.
- c. 50-R-40: A Resolution to Support the Creation of More Accommodating and Inclusive Interfaith, Prayer, and Reflection Spaces Throughout Campus and to Have Campus-wide Standards for Existing Spaces
- i. Diversity and inclusion has surveyed over 500 students. We have really asked students from every faith that is even on campus. 92.3 were in favor. 80 said there were not enough. We also had. What kind of accommodation. On the floor above us, that room is not properly equip for more prayer spaces on campus. We literally have one. Wherever the university have 5. There are other schools that have humongous chapels to use. No one should be denied. There should be no. Lastly this resolution also supports the university to equip through any means necessary and accessible.
 - ii. Meersman: we have a huge campus and I think this is crazy that we have one.
 - iii. Sockwell: Motion to pass with unanimous consent.
 - iv. Passed with unanimous consent
